William Myers Believed to Have Drowned in Bosque

William Myers, 40, whose home is on the Bosque river near the Waco Fishing and Boating club, was believed to have drowned yesterday afternoon in the Bosque while running trot lines. Deputy Sheriff J. L. Cunnick and R. M. Brownlow aided in a search for the man's body, but without results.

Myers is known to have gone to the river alone. His boat was found adrift some distance from the bank.
