

The State of South Carolina
Pendleton District

By the Honorable Charles J.
Colecock Esquire one of the Associate Judges of the State of South Carolina.

To all to whom these presents shall come be seen or made known Greeting

Know Ye, That this day John Brownlow a citizen of Pendleton District did appear before me and made oath, That on the 29th day of May 1781 At a near Chatham Count South Carolina he the said John Brownlow Entered the service of the United States of America as he understood during the pleasure of the Government of the United States, under Capt. Joseph Cooper of Col. Robert M'Nary Regiment in the 2nd Brigade of the N. C. Line.

He was in the Battle at Lindleys Mills on Camp Creek of Haw River, Orange County N. C. he was in the Van Guard and was wounded in three places in the skull, which was broken with a sword by one of the Enemy, He was many months unable to do any thing by occasion of his wounds during which time he lay at his Mothers near Chatham C.